

Exhibit 8

> About Xerox

Choose Your Highlights

Choose a category and decade from the lists below to see how Xerox has been defining the future of documents for over 100 years.

1. Please select one or more categories

- > Select all
- > Awards
- > Citizenship
- > History
- > Innovation
- > Environment

2. Please select one or more decades

- > Select all
- > 2010s
- > 2000s
- > 1990s
- > 1980s
- > 1970s
- > 1960s
- > 1950s
- > 1940s
- > 1930s
- > 1900s

start a new search

Your selections: Awards, Citizenship, History, Innovation, Environment, 1950s

Page 1 of 1

Company Info

- Xerox at a Glance
- Xerox Leadership
- Newsroom
- Investor Relations
- Innovation
- Environment
- Citizenship
- Xerox Partnerships
- Xerox Social Media
- Xerox Interactive Timeline
- Historical Highlights & Awards
- Xerox Fact Sheet (PDF)

1959

back to top

Xerox Corporation

The fast, economical Xerox 914—the first automatic, plain-paper commercial copier—is announced to the public on September 19 in a televised demonstration and subsequently revolutionizes the industry.

Products & Services

Office Equipment

Printers, copiers, multifunction printers, supplies.
view small business success stories

Production Equipment

Digital presses, production printers and copiers, wide format printers and workflow software.
view production success stories

Business Services

Document management and workplace optimization.
view document services success stories

1958

back to top

Haloid Xerox

The Haloid Company, originally formed in 1906 to manufacture photographic paper and equipment, changes its name to Haloid Xerox Inc. on April 16 to reflect the company's focus on commercial xerography.

1956

back to top

Rank Xerox

The Haloid Company and The Rank Organisation plc (UK) form Rank Xerox as a joint venture to manufacture and market Haloid (later Xerox) equipment initially in Europe and eventually in Africa and Asia.

Helpful Resources

- Contact Info
- Xerox Organizational Structure (PDF)
- Events & Tradeshow

Page 1 of 1